

I ask that you do the right thing and allow XM radio to continue to broadcast as it has from inception. If other interests must protect their turf so jealously why do they not improve their product instead of trying to shut down or compromise their competetion? Many thanks.

All the best,

Bud Presgrove (Marietta, Ga.)